SUOTAMETICAL. PURE VOLATILE EUGALYPTUS OIL. DISTILLED FROM THE LEAVES OF SELECTED SPECIES OF EUCALYPIUS.

LIUCALYPTUS OIL has long taken a foremost place as a "household remedy" in Australia. When applied externally it has a powerful stimulant and soothing action but does not blister the most sensitive skin and no application known will so quickly subdue the pain of muscular rhougatism.

Taken internally in small doses, it acts as a powerful stimulant and antispasmodic, whilst its secondary action induces sleep. The penetrating agreeable vapour of the Oil is sedative, and when inhaled relieves Asthma. Bronchitis, Catarrh, and Sore Throat. It is also a most powerful antiseptic and germioide, being three times as effectual as Carbolic Acid in preventing development of Bacteria, its uses in this direction being very numerous. The active properties of the Oil depend upon a Terpene called Eucalyptol, and we guarantee this Oil, prepared specially for us, to contain the Everman, Amr. bark, for New York. largest obtainable percentage of Eucalyptol and

IMPERIAL QUARTO. PNGLISH AND CHINESE DICינ'IONARY. WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION. An Angle-Chinese Dictionary, published at the

Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of latey ears been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are: here given in extense. Each and every word is Brazileira, British bark, 294, Skiller, Sept. 4 fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both Cape City, British sch., 499, Rodway, Sept. 18, the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best Chintung, Chinese str., 835, Winsor, Sept. 24, principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chowchewfoo, Ger. str., 796, Meyer, Sept. 24, Chinese and English type correspond in the size space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins | Chi-yuen, Chinese str., 1,211, Null, Sept. 23, and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications.

To illustrate the vast scope of the work the following facts are submitted for consideration . Clara, German steamer, 676, Ipland, Sept. 25,

For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its Harold, British bark, 1,299, King, Sept. 8 pages enables a person who nuderstands English to communicate effectively with natives who Hever, German steamer, 338, Nielsen, Sept. 24. anderstand nothing but Chinese.
